

A vertical yellow brushstroke on the left side of the page contains several grey silhouettes of people walking in various directions. The main text is in a light grey, sans-serif font. To the right of the text is a red flag icon consisting of a vertical line and a rectangular flag with horizontal stripes.

red flags

control isn't love.

Are there red flags in your relationship? In a friend's?
Are there constant put-downs or jealous threats? Excessive phone check-ins? Are you told what to wear and what to do?
Do you feel isolated from friends and family?
Find out the warning signs of abuse - take our quiz at

www.knowtheredflags.com

Sponsored by the Texas Council on Family Violence.

FACT: A statewide survey of 16- to 24-year-old Texans showed that 75 percent have either personally experienced dating violence or know someone who has.

KNOW WHEN TO RAISE THE RED FLAGS.

If you or someone you know is in a controlling or frightening relationship, get more information at

www.knowtheredflags.com

If you need to talk to someone, call this free number 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or TTY 1-800-787-3224

A caring, trained professional can offer assistance, 24/7, in multiple languages. All calls are confidential.

Funded by the Office of the Texas Attorney General and the Texas Health and Human Services Commission